

Private Label Production

Made to your exact specifications

What do we do

We produce products so that our customers can build successful long term viable food brands.

Private Label & Custom Packing

- We offer and produce a full range of products from a fully accredited production facility. Our production is scalable from smaller production specialty batches to large volume multiple shifts running on our three separate production lines.
- We can produce custom private-label products that are "wet" sauce-type products. Condiments, Marinades, Pasta Sauces, Pizza Sauces, Hot Sauces, spreads, and syrup- based non-alcoholic drink mixes.
- Able to produce products to targeted specs.
  1. Custom proprietary recipes.
  2. Custom Price points.
    - Mass Market.
    - Gourmet quality product.
  3. Distribution channel supply chain requirements, such as international. Product ingredient standards.

Packaging options are glass containers, plastic containers, five-gallon pails, drums, and totes. Our customers include: National/International Food Importers and Distributors, Wholesalers, National Supermarket Chains, Restaurants, Governmental Organizations, such as the United Nations, Schools, and Internationally Recognized food brand owners.
